Revealing the Power of the Human Spirit

The newlyweds who arrived in San Francisco just in time for the devastating earthquake...

The centenarian who recalls learning to drive at age 11 and taking over the household duties when she was only 15...

The man who survived the Luby's Cafeteria massacre of 1991 in Killeen, Texas...

When disaster strikes, it often brings out a strength you never knew you had. The stories of these people are no exception. But there are ordinary triumphs, too. Adopting dogs that might otherwise get put to sleep. Retiring on the beach, even if you don't have a lot of money. Finding love in your family and friends.

These things—from the seemingly small to the overwhelming—make up life as we know it.

Real Human Connection in the Internet Age

In the age of the internet, we like to believe that we're all more connected than ever before...but is that really true? Chances are, you don't really know your neighbors, let alone the events that have shaped their lives. Everyone has an interesting story to tell—it's just a matter of asking the right questions.

What is the Meaning of Life?

Former newspaper reporter John H. Clark has a gift for getting people to open up about their lives, and with these stories, he's woven a compelling tapestry of American life in People: Inside the Lives of Everyday Folks from Sea to Shining Sea. Stories of strife are strung alongside tales of triumph, leading the reader on a reflective journey to the heart of what it means to be a human in today's world. Though many of the subjects can be traced back to Texas, all are highly relatable and lead one to grapple with the biggest question of all—what is the meaning of this human life?
