Claire ripples between generations of women, carried as a middle name within one family, in this very special story of magic, pregnancy, adventure and love never ending. Meet Amelia Claire Earl in the present day as she discovers she's pregnant just before flying around the world in her hot air balloon; move backward in time and meet her mother, Liz, in 1980, two months pregnant and fighting-off ghosts; then onto 1958 where Dorothy, Liz's mother, is three months pregnant and running through the forest in chase of a snowy owl; and so forth through the generations to end in 1826 as the ninth and original Claire sails over to conquer the 'new world'. Expect wanderlust, postcards, mother-in-laws, heart break, middle names, witchcraft, ancestors, sore backs, hunger strikes, best friends, husbands, independence, and heaps of courage in this story of Claire Never Ending.
