Unshakeable Assignment: Do What You Know To Do Celeste Myers

Let's face it... most of us want to live a life of purpose and passion. But uncovering the life "it" doesn't always come with ease or certainty. The good news is that God has prepared a unique task list for each of us to complete. This memoir takes you on an inspiring twenty-year adventure of the author's unshakeable assignment of encouraging incarcerated teenagers through letter writing, newsletters, phone calls and visitation. The discovery—her life purpose was connected to this assignment and all the other opportunities to use her gift to serve others. May this story compel you to pay attention to those inner urges that you can't easily shake off and to start doing what you know to do in your heart.
