Time is running out for Avery to find her Dimidium. He's her only hope to cure her inevitable insanity. Avery can no longer separate dreams from reality as the darkness invades her. Terrifying visions plague her mind, Zhulik treachery is at an all-time high, and there are rumors that the elves have become involved. What's worse: Felix has gone missing. In her struggle to rescue Ivan and give her mind peace, she has found a whole world of allies and friends to help her. Riley's visions warn them of the future, fairy elixirs show them the way, and Avery's power illuminates the dangers surrounding them. Several fairies join them on their journey and provide Avery with a new viewpoint on the paranormal, teaching her more about the magical truth of her life. What they don't know is that Lucas is awakening a deeper evil. The fate of the world rests at his feet, but he needs his daughter's help. Will Avery find her Dimidium, or will Lucas get to her first?
