Stark Warning James Raven

“Every time you appear on screen someone will die.”

That’s the stark warning given to Jessica Lee, host of a confessional talk show on network television with millions of fans. But one deranged viewer is out to destroy her career. He demands that her programme be scrapped and tells her to stop appearing on TV. To prove he means business he claims his first victim – a young woman who is found dead with her throat cut. Jessica and her bosses face an agonizing dilemma: take the show off the air or risk more murders. They decide to defy the killer, for fear of setting a dangerous precedent. But there are dire consequences.

‘This novel is great fun. The action flows so swiftly that one keeps guessing with every twist and turn. The glimpse into the cutthroat world of television adds depth and color to the book. It’s an extremely entertaining read and should be a delight to thriller fans,’ ONLINE BOOK CLUB.
