Looking Back: Growing Up in Middle-America in the 20th Century David R Dockery

Two men share their stories about growing up in a small town just outside Chicago, IL. Their stories are touching, humorous, and look back on the 1940's through the 1970's in a way that shows the history of the eras, the toys, the small town landscape, and personal memories of their friends and family. The story is about how their family business was able to provide them with a life that was centered around hard work, church, family, and friends.
