The love of family and the admiration of friends is supposed to be much more important than wealth and privilege, but with the Watts family nothing is more important than oneself. After everything that has happened in the last two months, Tacari is determined to stick by her man's side no matter what the outcome is. Kyree on the other hand is determined to get what he wants when he wants, starting with a pair of sisters. Ashley is also in the mix, recently discovering certain things that will make or break her. Will Tacari hold on to the love she has found, or give up on the love that she craves? Will the love Kyree has for his brother be enough to stop his conniving ways or will they be his downfall? Down For The Count 2 will answer those questions while taking readers on a crazy ride that they won't ever forget!
