NO MERCY (The Revenger Book 8) Frank Leslie

“High-Octane Western Action!”—Amazon Reviews

A SEXY NEW WESTERN SERIES IN THE TRADITION OF LONGARM, SLOCUM, AND GUNSMITH...

The Revenger, Mike Sartain, is back with a vengeance in...

NO MERCY

Heading south to beat the northern snows, the Revenger, Mike Sartain, enjoys a couple of blissful nights under the camp covers with a pretty girl named Mercy.

When Mercy’s father is murdered by the fifty-strong Ramon Lazaro Bunch, who also burns her ranch, Mercy is out for revenge, which just happens to be right up Sartain’s alley.

As the Revenger and Mercy team up against impossibly long odds, they run into someone else who was badly wronged by the same gang.

Young Deputy Sheriff Abner Summerfield is grieving the rape and murder of the girl he was going to marry in the once quiet western Nebraska town of Shallow Ford. Traveling with festering bullet wounds and one bullet still lodged in his belly, the tough, determined, and possibly dying young deputy throws in with Sartain and Mercy on a trail on which they intend to show no mercy whatsoever.

Even if it kills them.

“Mike Sartain is probably the most diverse of [Leslie’s] characters. He cares nothing for the law. His only concern is justice. That and getting his ashes hauled, which is one of those common traits. One I tend to share. Like I said, I found this book very entertaining. Isn’t that why we read westerns?”—Amazon Reviews
