A New York Times Bestselling Author -- Nevada Barr offers a surprising story that reveals the previously untold history of Anna Pigeon in a gripping novel that will shock longtime fans and delight new readers. It's 1995, and thirty-five-year-old Anna Pigeon is fresh off the bus from New York City, working for the summer at Glen Canyon National Park. On her day off, Anna goes hiking into the park and never returns. Her coworkers think she's quit and moved on. But Anna didn't leave -- she was taken. When she wakes up naked at the bottom of a dry well, she knows only one thing: she's been trapped, at her most vulnerable, by someone who has plans for her.
