The Stone Mason's Dreams (Volume 1) Brian P. Reidy

The Stone Mason's Dreams is a tale of love and life in hearty New England. Billy Riley, a young, gifted stone mason, learns his trade and lessons of life in this heartwarming tale set outside of Boston, Massachusetts. Marianne is a dream who captures his heart, but her very nature turns his world inside out in a way that he could never imagine. This tale features classic characters that you will grow to love, who weave their way through Billy and Marianne's lives, creating a fabric that, for a while, make Billy's dreams finally come true. All too soon their life together is challenged and only time will tell what the future brings. This is a great read of hope and love even in the most trying of times.
