Lost Witness: A Cozy, Chick-Lit Mystery Novel Marla Bradeen

Can one woman solve the mystery behind a three-year-old death?

Divorcée Betsy Holmes had enough problems to deal with before Claudia, her overbearing mother, confesses to hiding a disturbing secret: Betsy's father wasn't alone the night of his fatal car crash three years ago. To make matters worse, Claudia is convinced her husband's mistress was the only surviving eyewitness to the deadly accident, and she wants Betsy to identify the woman.

Betsy reluctantly agrees to investigate, if only to get Claudia off her back. But after she uncovers information that leads her to question whether there might be some truth to Claudia's claims, Betsy finds herself haunted by the mystery of what really happened that night. Was her father actually the victim of a murder and, if so, "whodunit"?

Between parenting two difficult teenage daughters and working in weekend visits with her boyfriend, Betsy is searching for answers. And, before long, her sleuthing efforts lead her to some shocking discoveries she might have preferred never to learn.
