God never created man to be alone. All of us will need one relationship or the other in our lives in order for us to fulfill our destinies. As a result of this, it is important for us to be sure who we keep relationships with. Not all men would be equally useful in our lives and so we must find out who we and who is meant to be our companion in destiny. In this book, LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE, these three words are treated in-depth and you are going to learn so much about making right choices in relationship. You will discover the necessity of allowing God to choose for you who to marry and how to properly define relationships in your life. Apart from these, you will find out how to handle relationships in your life as well as what must guide your decision in making marital decisions. Do not allow the belief of the western world which teaches that there is nothing bad if you get involved in sexual impurity before marriage, claiming that after all, God had chosen you for each other. Beloved in God, you just need to see how some homes are in anguish today because of this slight error of pre-marital sexual relationship. This book will intimate you on what to do in courtship, why dating is not biblical and lots more. In the latter part, you will learn the divine guidelines for singles in critical relationship, divine leading in marriage and courtship management.
