Being married is a beautiful thing. There is nothing like having the loving support of a significant other. When you have someone by your side that always has your best interest at heart, you feel invincible. Being able to have someone bear witness to your life is a true gift.

When things go wrong in a marriage, it has the ability to leave you feeling the complete opposite. You may feel defeated, alone, and abandoned. The crazy thing is, you may not even be sure how you ended up in a dreadful marriage in the first place.

I created this book to help married couples get back on the right track. My goal is to help you find the love that was once there. In this book, you will learn helpful tips and tools that will allow for you and your mate to rekindle your passion for each other.
