SYNOPSIS:

Jesse feels secure enough in his relationship with his wife to give her the ultimate anniversary gift, though he is a little disappointed when she comes home worn out and half asleep. His wife makes her own discoveries as she enjoys her present, including the discovery that giving really can be as good as receiving.

EXCERPT:

“Unless you choose to talk about it, I will never know what happens in that penthouse apartment tonight. You have carte blanche to do as you wish.” Adam reached down and found the slit on her dress, and suddenly his fingers were sliding between the lips of her pussy, stroking her soaking wet clit, and she was cumming while staring into those steely blue eyes.

While her orgasm was still raging in her veins, Adam lifted the lace dress over her head and spread her naked body on the soft carpet of the floor. He knelt between her legs and pressed the plum colored tip of his cock to her slit. She opened for him and in spite of the huge size of his cock he slid easily into her depths. Julie cried out in joy as the huge organ bumped her cervix and she began to writhe beneath his massive body. She was no longer able to tell when one orgasm stopped and the next one started.

Adam was a professional, and he was used to having older women respond wildly to his body. Julie was fifteen or twenty years younger than his usual customer and she was hot...he felt his control slipping and he began to spurt his young juices into Julie’s grasping pussy.”
